Jonathon Michael Cobb

Pastor Jonathon M. Cobb was born on March 16, 1989 in Kettering, Ohio to Daniel and Beverly Cobb. Together with his parents, Jon was raised with two older siblings, Janelle and Jeremy. Throughout his life, Jon lived in the greater Miami Valley of Ohio and attended the Kettering SDA Church. He also went to Spring Valley Academy, where he and Kate grew up together and then later graduated high school in 2007.

Growing up, Jon has always had a strong and positive pastoral influence on his life. Starting with his grandfather, Al Brendel, his youth pastor, Brendon Prutzman, and senior pastor, David VanDenburgh, he has always kept ministry in mind for where God was calling him in life.

In high school, Jon made the decision to pursue a path in aeronautical engineering and attended Andrews University in Berrien Springs, Michigan. During his second year of college, he felt God leading his heart in another direction, though, and he transitioned into a degree in Theology/Pastoral Leadership. Shortly after completing college, Jon and Kate were married on May 27, 2012. Upon completing his undergraduate degree, Jon immediately started his Masters of Divinity degree with a Church Leadership emphasis at the Seventh-day Adventist Theological Seminary and finished in August 2014.

After completing his masters degree, Jon and Kate moved to Florida to be the youth and young adult pastor at the Spring Meadows SDA Church. During this time, Jon and Kate have been blessed with two beautiful children, Isaiah and Evelyn.

Jon has continued to abide in the calling that God has called him to and finds much joy in ministry. When he looks back on his life, he wants to be known for serving well the calling that God has given him, playing hard with his fellow man, knowing that Kate, Isaiah and Evelyn are proud to call him husband/father and to know that his leadership is God inspired.

"For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart."

Jeremiah 29:11-13
